

The Royal Geographical Society of Queensland (RGSQ) and the Ken Sutton Trust invite written submissions from an Australian Geographer for the Ken Sutton Trust Memorial Award.

This award will be promoted through an endowed public lecture in Brisbane in 2020, preferably in early October, and a publication as a pinnacle activity for RGSQ.

Selection Criteria

- An outstanding contribution to the discipline of Geography or Geographical Education in Australia
- Research in a geographical field (or geographical education) by an Australian geographer
- The successful applicant must be an Australian citizen

Download Application Form

Submission deadline: 30 April 2020

Email submission to: info@rgsq.org.au

Inquiries to: info@rgsq.org.au or (07) 3368 2066

The winner will be notified by email/phone.

The awardee will receive support for: publication of a paper, costs associated with presenting in Brisbane and $500 prize money.

---

THE ROYAL GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY OF QUEENSLAND

The Royal Geographical Society of Queensland promotes the study and science of Geography and encourages a greater understanding and enjoyment of the world around us. The Society is a voluntary, not-for-profit organisation that brings together and welcomes people from all walks of life who share an interest in places, geography and the environment.

Membership of the Society is open to all. Find out more at www.rgsq.org.au

---

THE KEN SUTTON TRUST

Assisting Geographical Education, Scholarship and Research

Ken Sutton B.Ed., F.R.G.S., F.R.F.S.A., M.A.C.E. was prominent in geographical education in Queensland and Australia. A geography teacher for many years, he was a founder of the Geography Teachers Association of Queensland and served as its President from 1972 to 1974. He was also founder of the Australian Geography Teachers Association of which he was President from 1974 to 1976. From 1983 to 1985 Ken Sutton was President of the Royal Geographical Society of Australasia (Queensland) Inc.

The Trust serves as an everlasting legacy of Ken Sutton's work in geographical education. The Ken Sutton Trust, established via a bequest from the Ken Sutton estate in 1988, is dedicated to providing a platform for the best Geographical or Geographical Education work in Australia to be promoted through an endowed lecture mini-series and publication. The prize is awarded for the most exciting new research in a geographical field or geographical education undertaken by an Australian geographer.